Write a short paragraph using the information: (March-2016)

Smartphone Market in India.

Day by day smart phones are becoming part and parcel of modern life style worldwide. Smartphone market grow 13.0% over these years. The scenario is not different in India too. Samsung reasserted its leadership with almost 26% of total market share. Micromax is giving a tough competition to Samsung, which is very near to Samsung. The indigenous company, Karbon has attracted its customers by its cost, features and look. Almost 13% of the people who are using mobile use Micromax. Nokia once upon a time, was a white tiger but nowadays it has no demand. It may be because of its cost, apps and features. Nokia has just 5% share in the mobile market. The other companies like Chinese and Indian have also created magic on smartphone users. They have almost 29% share in Indian market which is greater than any other mobile company.

To put it briefly, there is very tough competition among all the companies. The best featured and the cheapest are the attractions of youth and others alike nowadays.
